DIED IN AURORA

Alma Woman Passed Away From Attack of Pneumonia.

Mrs. Fred Porter of this city died last week Tuesday in Aurora, Illinois, following a few days illness with pneumonia, which had been contracted the previous week, while she was at work taking the census in that city.

She had accompanied her husband, Fred Porter, to Aurora, following the holidays, which had been spent at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Born, of this city. Soon after her return she became one of the census enumerators in Aurora, and it was while engaged in this work, that she contracted the disease, which brought about her death.

The remains were brought to Alma the latter part of last week, being accompanied to Alma by Mr. Porter. The funeral services were held Saturday at the home of her parents, Rev. J. Frank Jackson, officiating. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

A Big Box of Candy

will cause more pleasure to a woman than anything else you can purchase for ten times the money. Between meals, when she has that "candy hunger," and just after meals, as a kind of finishing dessert a few pieces of candy "touch the spot" as only candy can.

Law Officer's Perquisite.

Kissing the policeman instead of the Bible. Mrs. Amelia Thompson, who was called as a witness for the defense in an assault case, at London, Eng., by her evidence got the accused acquitted. In the witness-box she took the Bible in her right hand, "Kiss it," said Sgt. Mason. "Must I?" inquired the lady. "By all means," responded the sergeant. "Well then, here goes; if it must be done, it must be, but it's a curious thing this law, as much kissing and hugging as if one was christening a baby," and she put her arms around the sergeant's neck, and gave him such a violent kiss that it rebounded throughout the court. The magistrate called her a "stupid little thing" for misunderstanding what she was to do.

Uniform Type for the Blind.

American libraries for the blind are rejecting over the fact that they will no longer be obliged to have books in five different kinds of raised letters in order to accommodate readers taught in different parts of the country and at different periods. After many years of discussion a uniform type, to be known as "revised Braille," has been agreed upon, and hereafter all books embossed in this country are to be in the new type. "The Deserter," by Richard Harding Davis, was the first book to be published in revised Braille. —Scientific American.

Brute!

Mrs. Heckel (with newspaper)—What's an autonomous state, Elmer? Mr. Heckel (courageously)—The state of single blessedness.

Seems to Be General Opinion.

"Tell me what company you keep, and I will tell you what you are." is a proverb that is found in similar form among the French, Spanish, Italian, Dutch and others. Anything so widely accepted must be true.

Have to Piece Out Truth.

You can draw your own conclusion from the fact that there isn't enough truth in existence to keep tongues of gossip constantly wagging.

LIBRARY NOTES

The children and young people just flock to the new reading room, the fresh and tidy appearance being a drawing card. Since the opening day, January 10, the number of people drawing books has doubled, there now being an average of 65 a day. A sub-committee of Library work is devising ways and means of raising funds, with which to purchase books to supply the increased demand.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors, who so kindly offered their sympathy and assistance in the loss of our beloved wife, daughter and sister; Rev. J. Frank Jackson for his kind and consoling words; Prof. A. P. Cook; the pallbearers and singers and also for the beautiful floral offerings.
Signed,
Fred J. Porter

Bread-Plus-Milk— Nature's Perfect Food

Don't cheat the growing child!
That active little body uses up so much energy --
Those tissues, bones and muscles are building up so rapidly --

Good building material is your child's first need. --
The real building material is food, Bread-and-Milk--- nature's own perfect combination.

Give them generous slices of firm white Bread, all golden-crusted, with plenty of delicious creamy milk --- a whole bowlful of it.

Remember your children are growing---they are playing. Watch them develop into robust citizens on a bountiful diet of Bread-and-Milk.

"Alma baked Pandandy Bread is Bread at its Best -- always pure, tempting and nutritious."

Eat---"Two Slices For One."
